closed dull after receipt of foreign news.

But three days intervene before election. All that is to be done, in the way of preparation, must be done within that time. If this paper should meet the eye of a single REPUBLICAN, in whose district the work is not yet complete, we urge him to see at once that everything is ready. Give us a full and fair rote, and there can be no question of the result. We shall carry the State by thousands. See to it, nevertheless, Repub-LICAN friends, that every voter comes to the polls and that no cheating play is permitted. Have nour tickets readn: Get out the voters: Guard the Bailot-boxes and ALL IS WELL!

The News' Last Kick. The News copies the lying and infamous article from the Chroago Times, which we branded, as it deserved, yesterday; and adds a few more wholesale fabrications, on its stopped. At the rate of speed we were runown hook, to the general fund of Democratic ning, I could not check the train so as to defamation of Governor Randall. The Many charges that Governor Randall has employed men in Dane and Columbia counties, to report that the is favorable to the track. The ox was between the side ditch and track when I first saw him. The other turned off, but this one tried to run whole cloth. There is not a particle of truth in the story. this city the Governor asserted that he had done this; that he expected to create among the inhabitants of the interior a prejudice self their votes, by holding forth to them the idea that he would use his utmost endeavors for their advancement, and that he was decidedly opposed to this city and its interests. And he further said that the vote of Milwaukee could be purchased by money; that money would buy up the entire city, and that he would accomplish his ends by such means." This is, if possible, a grosser and viler fabrication than the other. It is false on its face. The cheat is too transparent to deceive the most prejudiced or the most ignorant opponent of Gov. RANDALL. Every man of sense knows it to be utterly untrue. We brand the whole story as a wanton, wicked, wholesale lie, and defy the News to produce a single respectable witness to prove it. Our readers can readily guess to what straits the Sham-Democracy are reduced, when their organs steep to such base means, in hope of conquest. Tuesday Next will show that the FREEMEN of Wisconsin repudiate these villainous devices, and the unserupulous demagogues who resort to them.

The County Division Question.

The News deems the proposed division of Milwaukee County, as "unwise, impolitic and injurious to the interests of the towns, as well as those of the city." At the same time, the News opposes Mr. TAYLOR, who is against "division," and supports Mr. EGAN, who is pledged in favor of it, and who was nominated on this single issue.

George McNumra:—Was engineer on the excursion train yesterday morning when the accident occurred. The train was running at the rate of about 18 miles an hour. The accident took place about seven miles south of this city. I first saw two cattle by the track. As we approached them one ran off from the track, and the other, an ox, attempted to cross the track, about the length of one and a half cars this side of an open cul-vert. He was carried to the culvert and there dropping under the cow-catcher, threw the engine off upon the west side of the road into the ditch, the cars following. Was 20 tods from the ox when I first saw him. Did not think then that he would go up on the track. He jumped upon the track closs ahead of the engine. Had we been going taster, would probably have thrown him clear off the track. The train was thrown off by his being caught in the culture. in the culvert.

Robert Campbell, Chief Engineer of the interests of Madison and opposed to Milwan-kee, and in other portions of the State to make "a contrary statement." It is only necessary to say that this charge is a lie out of the signal to the brakemen. Had not time the signal to the brakemen. Had not time to do so. If the brakemen had been at their places, there was not time to stop the train. Have run over that portion of the road before. Had to run twenty miles an hour to make time. Don't know what Campbell done this; that he expected to create among the inhabitants of the interior a prejudice against Milwaukee and thus secure to himself their votes he holding forth to them the I was on the same same to the engine on the other side. Show was on the west side with me. I consider it my duty when I see cattle on the track to whistle and frighten them off. The train could not possibly have been stopped, had all the brakes been applied, before going from 40 to 80 rods. I have run as engineer three years or more. Was a machinist and fireman for five years before that. The cattle were headed from the track. I

The cattle were headed from the track. I noticed the ox after the train stopped. He laid across the track with his head to the west. He must have been rolled over and turned around. Did not see him when the engine first struck him.

Hinckly was one of the brakemen. Don't know the names of the others. If the ox had not caught in the culver, he would probably have been carried off the track. The rail turned over and let the engine off; if it lead not turned over the tanges of the driv. rait turned over and let the engine off; it had not turned over, the flanges of the driving-wheels would have probably kept the engine upon the track. If I had blown the whistle, the train could not have been so checked as to have prevented the socident; I did not blow the whistle when I first saw the ox because I supposed he was going from the track. If cattle are alongside of the track my duty is to get by them as quietly as pos-sible and not to whistle; if they are upon the track then I should whistle and frighten track then I should whistle and frighten them off if I can. The rail probably was turned over in consequence of the strain upon it; I presume it was laid as well as the others; the train loosened the rails. When the engine stopped, I stepped off and let off the steam; I was not thrown off. After getting the engine safe, looked to the fireman, who was injured.

Timothy F. Strong—Am Assistant Superintendent of the Chicago and N. W. Railway; was on the excursion train resterday; Arthur A. Hobart was the conductor; he has been a number of years; he is regarded as a very competent conductor; there were 12 passenger cars attached to the train when the accident occurred—also a baggage car. Luntand Mason were in the baggage car. Theron Minor was caught between two cars, I think the 3d and 4th, and killed. Don't know where Sickles, Emmons and Craig were. The train was going at the rate of 18 or 20 railes an hour; have been connected with railroading the rate it was countected with railroading for 12 years. Such a train as this, going at the rate it was, could not have been stopped with the usual number of brakeman in less than 1,000 or 2,000 feet. The train was heavily loaded. All the cars were filled but one and that was two-thirds full; there were probably 600 or 700 persons on the train. If probably 690 or 700 persons on the train. It the enginver had seen the cattle with their will awake to the subject. This is essential-heads from the track, his duty was to pass as quietly as possible and not to have whistled. If he saw them eight or ten rods from the train headed for the track, his duty was to notify the brakeman. If the cattle jumped on the track 25 or 30 feet from the engine, he could do nothing and would have to submit to the consequences. Had the speed been greater, the ox would doubtless have been the track; discovered the positive will indeed be a shame for Milwaukee if this Association must suspend, and all the thrown from the track; discovered the positive will indeed be a shame for Milwaukee if this Association must suspend, and all the strong from the track; discovered the positive will indeed be a shame for Milwaukee if this Association must suspend, and all the strong from the track; discovered the positive will indeed be a shame for Milwaukee if this Association must suspend, and all the strong from the track; discovered the positive will indeed be a shame for Milwaukee if this Association must suspend, and all the strong from the track; discovered the positive will indeed be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will indeed be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will indeed be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if the positive will be a shame for Milwaukee if

THE FIFTH AND EIGHTH WARDS ASSEM-BLY DISTRICT .- MESSRS. EDITORS:-- I percleve by the Sentinel of to-day, that the nominations of Assemblymen for the several districts of this county are almost complete, but as yet the district comprising the Fifth and Eighth Wards is without a candidate on the Republican side. Permit me, then, through your columns, to suggest the name of a suitable candidate. I refer to Robert Davies, one of the pioneers of '36, and a resident of Milwaukee for upwards of 23 years. He is well known in the city and State, as a man of undoubted integrity, and he is in every respect worthy of the confidence of his fellowcitizens, and well calculated to fill that important office. Mr. Davies is a thorough Republican. Let him be nominated,-his election is sure, and the district will be represented at Madison next winter by an honest and efficient officer.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4-3 P. M.
The funeral of A. B. Kyle, Jr., who was murdered at the 15th Ward polls on election day, took place at the residence of his father in South Hanover street, at noon to-day. There was an immense gathering of people to view the body, and the remains were fol-lowed to the grave by members of the Reform Association, and citizens generally, embrac-ing merchants, business and professional men of the highest respectability. The procession moved through the wholesale business portion of Hanover and Baltimore streets, to Charles street, passing around the base of the Washington Monument. All the stores and residences on the route were closed, and the respectable portion of the inhab-tants of Baltimore testified, in a quiet and subdued manner, their sympathy with the deceased, and condemnation of the lawlessness which has had such a tragical result.

The Zurich treaty stipulates that a ratifi-cation of the peace treaty shall be exchanged within fifteen days. The Paris Pays intimates that Naples, The Paris Pays intimates that Naples, Spain, Portugal and Sweden are not likely to be members of the projected Congress.

The London Times, Post and Herald are averse to England's joining it. The Post, Lord Palmerston's organ, regards the Italian complication as very serious, and the situation of Napoleon as very embarrassing. It also thinks it certain that Romagna will be attacked by the papal troops, and that at first menace of an armed intervention in the Duchies, Garitaldi's troops will sweep away every vestige of papal rule. The electricians have commenced at Va-lentia experiments on the Atlantic Cable, with some encouraging results.

It is reported at Paris that the Emperor had refused an audience to a deputation from Bologua, but granted one to a deputation The English journals continue to draw attention to the immense naval armaments now building in France : particularly Tou on, where 22 large ships are being tructed. Nothing definite is known as to the proected French Chinese expedition.

It is reported that Marshal Vallaynt has anguested to Napoleon the occupation of the Duchies by the French troops to prevent sivil war. Considerable excitement prevails at Piedment on account of the conditions of the Zurich treaty.

It is reported at Turin that Napoleon's war ships having been seen off Romagua, a Piedunontese Squadron were ordered into the Adriatic. There is an unconfirmed rumor of revolurebels were killed.

B Jurich telegraph of 18th says principal points of treaty of peace between France and Austria signed by Plenipotentiaries, but not yet ratified by the two Governments, are gas

Austria gives up Lombardy, except Man-tua and Pescheiera, and as far as the frontier line, fixed by special commission, to France, who transfers it to Piedmout. Pensions acquired in Lombardy are to be paid by the new Government. Piedmont is to pay Ausnew Government. Pledmont is to pay Austria forty million florins, to be responsible for three-fifths of the debts of Monte, Lombard Venetian, making the debt in all transferred to Sardinia 250,000,000 francs.

The two contracting parties will unite their efforts in order that reform in the administration should be carried out by the Pope. The rights of the Dukes of Tuscany, Modena and Parma, are expressly reserved by the two rights of the Dukes of Tuscany, andens and Parma, are expressly reserved by the two Emperors, who will assist with all their power in the formation of a confederation of all the States of Italy, and Venetia, under Austrian rule, is to form a part of the confederation. Ratifications will be exchanged at Zurich within 15 days. It will be seen from the above that this treaty is nearly an application of the Villa Franca arrangement. from the above that this treaty is nearly an amplification of the Villa Franca arrangement. A Zurich telegram announces that Count Colteredo was that morning attacked with appoplexy; four physicians were attending him, but there were little hopes of his recovery. The Paris Pays estimates of its own knowledge, that in a Congress accepted in principle by the English government, the only powers to be represented besides the great ones, will be Piedmont, and the Pope and Naples under certain conventionalities. The admission of Spain might be natural, but Sweden and Portugal have no claim.

Portugal have no claim.

The Independent Balge says that out of compliment to Napoleon, Austria proposed that Congress should set in Paris: but this was declined and chances favored Brussels. The policy of England in Itaking part in the Congress was being canvassed by the press and generally arguments were against it. The London Times and Horald are both averse to England joining any Enropean Congress on Italian affairs.

Our friends throughout the State will greatly oblige us, if they will send us the returns of their respective Election Districts, by the first conveyance, (telegraph, mail, or private hand,) available after the polis close. "Real Reform."

The News claims that our City Democratic Administration is entitled to great credit, for reducing the taxes $66,000 below those of last year. The News, however, omits to say that the tax this year is nearly $100,030 short of what is needed to pay arrearages and current expenses. The News thus "points the moral" of its flattering "tale": What has been done in this city, may, and will, be done in the State government, if the Democratic ticket is elected. The expenses will, at once, be reduced, so far as they can be, by cutting off all unnecessary or corrupt expenditures of the people's money.

elected. The expenses will at once, be reduced, so was tay can be, by cutting of all unnecessary or propriet expenditures of the people's money.

Against this cheap promise of the News, we are offset the actual performance of the Re-tained by it, or that any such silly threat tocan offset the actual performance of the Republican State Administration. During Gov. RANDALL's present term, the State, for the first time, is out of debt; all demands against clusion of slavery from the Territories. the Treasury have been promptly met; there is a handsome surplus on hand, sufficient to deis reduced over two hundred thousand dollars since last year, and is the lowest we have had since the Administration of Governor had some the Southern had some the Administration of Governor had some the Southern had so FARWELL. This is "Real Reform" and no mistake. Elect the entire R-publican State Ticket, and the same state of things will be continued. Restore the Sham Democracy to power, and we shall have the old story of extravagant expenditures, heavy defects, School Laud "scalings," an empty Treasury and burdensome and excessive Taxation.

As Gov. Randall said at Horicon, "You have your choice, gentlemen, make your thesting!"

Lection and gusto. But we defy it to point to a single sentence or line of that harangue, which sustains its assumption that the Republicans, as a party, propose any interference with Slavery in the Southern States. This Day Book is the most unmitigated Doughface organ published in the Free States, and is always ready to endorse every act and the states, tarough the instrumentality of the people of those States themselves. But the takes the ground that neither Congress nor the people of the North have anything to do with the question—that it is unconstitutional for either to interfere in the matter and is always ready to endorse every act and a conflevery demand, of the Slavery Propaginda. The spirit of the above paragraph, however, is not confined to the Day Book. It pervades other Sham-Democratic besoms. Mr. George B. Shith, for instance, one of the notorious "Forty," in his speech at Albany Hall, announced that the Government" would "hany all the Black Republicans" if they dered "to carry out their principles," as it was "about to hang old Brown." If the Government concludes to take that job, we do not know of any man better qualified for the office of Jack Estoh than the aforesaid George Brass Shith.

ANOTHER YEAR, with its warried experiences and vick-stondes, has nearly rone, the seed time and harvest have passed away, and the products of the earth more abundant and excitent, in many respects than usual, have been gathered in. Our State has been devored by an overruling Providence with exemption from pesticence or any prevailing disease, and the commercial and financial distress, under which our land has solong suffered, seems to be approaching an end. As a State we have been free from crit disturbances, and menhave gone about their daily avocations in peace and quietness. As a nation, too, we have been exempted from the seems of blood which have been the result in other lands of the shock of contending bosts.

It is right that we should, as a people, render the irhute of our thanks to the Author of all goods, for the establishment and coptinuaces of our free institutions, for the general leadith and prospective of our people, for the blessings of peace, for the privileges of free deutsation, and freedom to worship food according to the dictates of conscience, and for all the unnumbered blessings individual and national, so bountifully show eved upon as.

Six times fair earth bath stolen round
Her myaile lord, the glowing sim—
Six times lash thusbed, in roses bound,
From being warmly guzed updn:
Six times we're hailed this morning, sweet,
Since dawned our first of wedded years—
A retrospect in which I greet
A million times more scales than tears! To give thee iny to day, I bring, My love, this emblematic ring.

The central gem portraps the light Of love hatter a twelvementh show The other five, as pure and bright, That round it form a sparkling zone. Are like the rich effulgence shed From Joys of each successive year; And while those blissful years are fled, Their charmlur light ver lineer here. Their charming light yet lingers here! The clouds that gathered vanished soon, And ne'er eclipse our honeymoon. This golden band, that proudly holds

These gones with scintillating beating. As thus it lovingly infolds. They grows with scientillating beating. As thus it lovingly infolds. Thy graceful, like finger, seems. A fitting emblem, it its form, Of snowy arms that round me twine; Then while my lips feel kines warm, Dear, diamond eyes beduzzle mine: May each recurring wedding day. Have all the light that makes this gay!

Henry Ward Bescher lectured the other evening to an immense audieuce-a perfect jam-iu his own church, in Brooklyn, on "The Bargain Makers," in the "Plymouth Course." The edifice was thronged in every part. He was introduced by Mr. Theodore Tilton, of the Independent, with the following remarks: Mr. Til-

"The lecturer insists upon being introduced. [Laughter.] This, I suppose is from natural modesty. [Laughter.] Yet, perhaps, I ought to say a word explanatory, in order that he may not come before you as a perfect stranger! I would therefore state that he is from Litchfield, Connecticut, and that he is from Litchfield, Connecticut, and is a ministers' son. [Laughter.] Now ministers' sons, you know, are proverbially disinclined to follow the good example of their fathers. So I will tell you a queer story that I heard the other day from Litchfield.—
By the side of an old house in that town, there stood a birch tree, when it had reached the height of the second story, put forth, one sprig, a branch that grew through an open window into the room. The window of the airy chamber was not shut down and the tree was allowed to grow; until at last a robin came and built a nest in the bough, inside the house. Now, as I am credibly informed, a prominent early brauch of the Beecher family was the branch of birch—[laughter]—introduced, I believe, on the father's side! [Great laugh-I believe, on the father's side! Great laughter.] At all events, it has been hinted that it was the birch that first brought our friend into the church. [Applause and laughter]—but having been thus vigorously coaxed in, he found the church so good a place that he built his nest in it, and has been singing there like a robin ever since! [Great applause.] I will only add further, that he has been for sometime root preschief, in this medicine. sometime past preaching in this neighbor-hood, with a view to a call and settlement in i new church on Montague Heights! [Great Mr. BEECHER was then received with loud applause, and retorted by saying that Mr. Tilton would himself lecture in Brooklyn next week, and that he (Mr. B.) would like to be present to introduce him. [Laughter.]

selves with those who rest on the Lord's Day, and see who are best housed, best fed, and best clothed, those who worship God SIGN OF THE WHITE BEAR.

And best clothed, those who worship does and obey the fourth commandment, or those who worship idols, and work all the time to keep idols? least days. When a Chinaman begins to listen to the Gospel, the first thing he does is to put away his idols, and the next to break off labor on the Christian Sabbath. A few months ago a young man living in the to break off labor on the Christian Sabbath. A few months ago a young man living in the country became convinced of the truth of Christianity, and ceased to labor on Sunday. His father said, "Very well, if he won't work on Sunday he shan't eat on Sunday," and for weeks the boy has fasted from Saturday night till Monday morning. The Chinese make staunch Christians when once converted."—Christian Advocate and Jour.

"Two things a master commits to his servant's onre," said one—" the child and the child's clothes," It will be a poor excuse for the servant to say at his master's return:
"Sir, here are all the child's clothes, neat and clean; but the child is lost!" Much so with

"Sir, here are are are an entered and the clean; but the child is lost!" Much so with the account that many will give to God, of their souls and bodies at the great day.—
"Lord, here is my body; I was very grateful for it; I neglected nothing that belonged to its content and welfare; but as for my soul, that is lost and cast away forever—I took little that is lost and cast away THE Rev. Peter Cartwright recently ad-dressed a large audience in Philadelphia, giv-ing incidents of his life. He discussed as ing incidents of his life. He discussed as follows concerning the preachers now sent to the West, in contrast with those sont in earlier days:—"Of late years, my friends, and other bread of preachers is trauferred to us; these are the hysterical, dyspeptic, sore throat, blue-finger-fied sort of preachers.—They travel among yon; they are unacceptable; they are useless lumber; and lo! their dyspeptic things."

Open Communion.—Mr. Spurgeon says that, "as for communion, it seems to us that this is no more at our disposal than the blood of the Redeemer, which he has shed for all his people, whether immersed or no. We believe restricted fellowship to be impossible among the saints of God. With all the Church we do and must commune. The spirit of the living God has established an irresistible communion among all the regeneirresistible communion among all the regenerated, and no Church set can restrain or limit the divine impulse. Respecting the consciences of those who had a limited fellow-

PROTESTANTISM IN AUSTRIA.—To how many dangers of losing their faith the Protestans of Austria are continually exposed, may be learned from the following facts: The or-phan children of military persons and officers are admitted into the state institutions, erected for their education, only on the certificate of their relations or gnardians that they may be instructed in the doctrines of the Roman Church. The late Italian war has brought many Protestant families into a condition in many Protestant families into a condition in which the offer of the government may prove a strong temptation to sacrifice the faith of the orphans to the benefit of a good education.—
Pastor Hiedner, of Kaiserwerth, the venerable founder of the Evangelical Deaconnesses, announces that a Protestant Orban Asylum in Prussian Silesia will receive and educate, free of charge, from twelve to twenty-four free of charge, from twelve to twenty-four Austrian orphan children. It is hoped that other wealthy Protestants will follow this exemple, and thus avert the danger which

The attendance on Change begins to afford evidence of the near approach of the pork season. Among the validors today were many faces that are rarely seen on that face, except between November and February. There were how drovers and hog numers, feeders from the interior, and operators from the sea-board, with here and there a dealer from the operate side of the water. The latter tell us, as usual, that there will be no market in Great Britan for preducts that will justify over $1 for he $5, but their words full upon the ears of traders as a more felt inte. Nobedy expects hogs to sold at $1-while packets would be willing to go through the season at an accuracy of $5.
